LOCAL AND GENERAL.

An office boy is wanted.
Capt. Irving of the Blengfell has a notice elsewhere.

Mr. A. O. Wood, a well known resident, desires employment.

Claims against the Honolulu Arion Picnic should be handed to Mr. M. Goldberg.

The barkentine Kikikat brought twenty spars, each ninety feet long and twenty-two inches diameter.

The Farrallon sails for San Francisco at 10 o'clock this morning. The mail closes at the Post Office at 9 o'clock.

There will be a meeting of the Committee of Arrangements for the Honolulu Arion Picnic to-night at 7:30 at the Hall.

A meeting of the Ewa Plantation Company will be held at three o'clock this afternoon at the office of Messrs. Castle & Cooke.

The W. G. Hall brought the news of the death by drowning of Mr. James Turnbull, sugar boiler, at Naalehu Plantation, Hawaii.

A bottle of kerosene oil on fire near King street bridge caused an alarm to be rung from the central tower about 7:30 o'clock last evening.

There will be a people's excursion to Ewa Plantation on Saturday, giving a fine chance to get out in the country and get a whiff of pure air. Time table in another column.

THAT MASS MEETING.

About Two Hundred and Fifty Persons Assemble on Palace Square.—Very Little Enthusiasm.

Posters around town announced a mass meeting at Palace Square last evening with regard to the calling of a constitutional convention. It was held, and about two hundred and fifty people, including women and boys, assembled. It looked as if they were there more out of curiosity than anything else. There were ten speakers, but very little enthusiasm was aroused among those present. If it had not been for a few amusing remarks by Wm. White at the tail end, it would have been a very tame meeting.

James Quinn a kind of opened the meeting, but he was very brief. An alarm of fire scattered the people somewhat. J. Kaulia was called on to speak, and then J. M. Kaneakua. He said the Legislature was the only power that could call a constitutional convention. If they could change the constitution in America, why not in Hawaii? Messrs. J. K. Kaneakua and L. P. Kanealii made remarks in Hawaiian which were not translated.

John E. Bush said they proposed to have a new constitution, one that every man, woman and child (7) in the Kingdom had a voice in. He would like to see the judges who could base his opinion on the present illegal constitution. [A voice—You were elected under it.] It was framed by a handful of men, a lot of robbers, who have robbed you of your rights. They ought to be hung everyone of them. It was framed by a handful of missionary lawyers. These men are lousy with dollars and that is all they care about. We want to get a new constitution in a legitimate way. It would not be right to give any power back to the King, and he should not have anything to do with votes.

Jos. Nawahi said Moses went through the Red Sea and came out all right. If this did not come in the Legislature there would be something outside. The opinion would grow until they succeeded. It was the missionary party that turned in the false alarm of fire, so as to take people away from the meeting. With regard to the Mechanics Union that had called the meeting, Noah was the first mechanic. He helped to save the world. If it had not been for that large ship we would not have been here to-night. God advised Noah to call his sons together and hold a convention. They asked for a new constitution, and God gave them one—it was the ark, and the sign was a rainbow in the clouds. God is still alive and we will have a new constitution for the Sandwich Islands.

Robt. W. Wilcox spoke in Hawaiian. He said he was the first to refuse to have anything to do with the present Constitution. [A Voice—You were also elected under it.] If any National Reformer votes against this conventional bill he should be torn to pieces, from limb to limb. They would be considered rebels, they Noble or Representative. The present Constitution was gained through a rebellious act. The opinions of the Supreme Court amounted to nothing. You people made the King, and if you say so to-night he could no longer be king. They say there are only twenty-two National Reformers. Where are the Ministers? They promised a Hawaiian from Maui a position in the Post Office, but deceived him and he has gone home. They ought to be annihilated—they are not capable of doing anything. If the Nobles and Representatives elected on this island don't vote for this enabling act, they ought to be spat on by every native. A vote of want of confidence is ready, but if the Ministers vote for this they will be saved. One day the Ministers are National Reformers and another day they are like Judas, and not fit to clean horse shoes. He formed his opinion of the Ministers the first day they sat in the House. Unless the enabling act was passed, they would hang on with this Legislature until the next one. We Hawaiians must stand together and if there is trouble we will make trouble and follow it to the bitter end.

Kiha of Koloa spoke, followed by Wm. White, who made all who understood Hawaiian, laugh. The meeting was over about 9:30 o'clock.

Departure of the Nipsic.

The U. S. S. Nipsic, Capt. Felix McCurley, weighed her anchor yesterday afternoon, and left the harbor punctually at 3 o'clock for San Francisco, amid cheers from the crews of the Iroquois and Acorn. Her homeward bound pennant was flying gaily to the breeze. The tug Elen with the Hawaiian band and a number of ladies on board accompanied the vessel beyond the Bell buoy. The crew of the departing vessel climbed the rigging and gave three farewell cheers. The Nipsic will reach the Coast in about two weeks.

Police Court.

TUESDAY, Sept. 9.
Chin Yun was fined $9 with $1 costs for assaulting a native woman by throwing stones at her.

Three drunks were discharged and two Chinese charged with having opium in possession were let go.

Supreme Court of the Hawaiian Islands.

tate therein, or authorized by such power to act in the premises, may, upon a breach of the condition, give notice of his intention to foreclose such mortgage, by publication of such notice in the Hawaiian and English languages for a period of three consecutive weeks, before advertising the mortgaged property for sale; and also give such notices and do all such acts as are authorized or required by the power contained in the mortgage; and he shall within thirty days after selling the property in pursuance of the power, file a copy of the notice of sale and his affidavit setting forth his acts in the premises fully and particularly in the office of the Registrar of Conveyances in Honolulu. The affidavit and copy of the notice shall be recorded by the registrar with a notice of reference thereto in the margin of the record of the mortgage deed if recorded in his office.

As to the notice of intention to foreclose, it appears that the notice was published in the Hawaiian and English languages for three consecutive weeks, the first publication being on the 13th of August, 1889, and the last on the 3d of September, 1889, and after being further advertised by posters, the land was sold at public auction on the 9th day of September, 1889. The fact that the mortgagee in the same advertisement, also gave notice that after the expiration of three weeks the mortgaged property would be advertised for sale at public auction on the 9th day of September, 1889, cannot in any way affect the notice of intention to foreclose. The statute fixes three consecutive weeks as the time for advertising notice of intention to foreclose, but is silent as to the number of times notice of sale shall be published. Under this state of facts, I find that the mortgagee has complied with the statute in regard to the required publications.

The next question is in regard to the affidavit of foreclosure and sale. The object of filing the affidavit is only to be that it may appear of record that the requirements of the statute have been complied with. The statute does not read "the (mortgagee) shall within thirty days * * * file a copy * * * and his affidavit setting forth his acts * * *." There is a similar provision made for the filing of answers in civil actions. Section 1106 of the Compiled Laws reads: "It shall be incumbent upon every defendant served with process of summons as hereinbefore provided, within the time * * * to file with the clerk of the Court an answer to the plaintiff's demand * * *." An answer is rarely if ever filed by the party defendant, but is filed by his or her attorney and is held to be sufficient, if it is done for and on behalf of the defendant.

In this case the affidavit is made by William R. Castle who deposes and says, "he is attorney for the mortgagee * * * he did foreclose * * * he did advertise notice of intention to foreclose and of sale as required by law * * *." The affidavit sets forth his acts in the premises fully and particularly. It also appears that the affidavit was filed in the Registrar's office on the 10th day of September, 1889, the day after the sale, and was therefore within the thirty days required by law.

I am of opinion that the affidavit of William R. Castle attorney for the mortgagee is sufficient, and that the requirement of the statute has been complied with. If there was or is any doubt as to the authority of Mr. Castle, it is entirely removed by the affidavit of William Dean, the mortgagee, filed in this case, recorded in Registrar's office 6th January, 1890, as follows:

"In the matter of the foreclosure, Kulaau to Wm. Dean, being duly sworn, deposes and says: That he the mortgagee named in a certain mortgage made by Kulaau and others to him, dated 29th day of December, 1884, recorded Liber 92, page 377, and that said mortgage was foreclosed for default in payment of interest; that William R. Castle acted as his attorney in the matter and attended to all of the business in connection with said foreclosure; that he is the attorney for all of the mortgages and investments of said William Dean, made by him, the said William Dean, and attends to collections of interest and foreclosures for non-payments; and that he verily believes that in all respects said mortgage was duly foreclosed in accordance with the law as set forth in the affidavit of foreclosure, duly filed and recorded in Liber page 377. And further deponent saith not."
WILLIAM DEAN.
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 24 day of January, 1890.
NELLIE M. LOWREY,
(seal) Notary Public.

The mortgagee's deed prepared by petitioner does not conform to the affidavit of foreclosure, but that can be rectified, as the sale has not been completed.
The plaintiff not only has all the title of the mortgagee, but has quit claim deeds from the mortgagors. The bill is dismissed with costs.
C. L. Carter for petitioner; W. R. Castle for defendant.
